

Curriculum overview:

In Year 9 you will study the first year of your GCSE. You will look at moral issues such as marriage and family life, abortion, euthanasia and why people believe in God. We will study these from the point of view of both Muslims and Christians. You will have a chance to do independent research and form your own opinions.

Homework & assessments overview:

Each week you will complete exam question for practice. You will also be given revision booklets and study guides closer to the exam
