Task Outline:

You can produce a SELF PORTRAIT using two different methods.

One is to look at yourself in the mirror

The other is to work from a photograph on your phone.

PLEASE CHECK OUT THE EXAMPLES FIRST ON YOUTUBE AND OTHER LINK

I have included examples of 'half portraits'. Some students find this useful before going on to a 'full' portrait. If you have a photo/ photocopy of yourself you can use this (but you have to rip it in half)

OR

Find any portrait in a magazine to use.

This is similar to a task we did in sketchbooks based on the artist Van Gogh. (Where you produced the other half using mark-making)

The NEXT part of this task is to produce a full SELF PORTRAIT.

Remember LIGHT guidelines, measurements, proportions, before developing any TONE/ DETAIL
