

Teachers of English

Start date: September 2026

Salary: MPS/UPS (Inner London Weighting)

Contract: Permanent

Hours: Full Time and/or Part Time

Swanlea School is an OFSTED Outstanding, high-performing 11–18 mixed comprehensive school located in the heart of Tower Hamlets. We are driven by a clear moral purpose and a shared commitment to providing an exceptional education for every young person, regardless of background or circumstance. Our Swanlea Values underpin everything we do, shaping our culture of high expectations, respect, inclusion and ambition for both students and staff.

We are proud to be the Lead School within the newly established Weavers' Federation, working in close partnership with two local primary schools to strengthen educational provision, raise standards and ensure continuity of learning across all phases. Through this collaboration, we are building a strong, coherent educational community that supports staff development, shares best practice and maximises opportunities for children and young people across our local area.

Swanlea School serves a diverse community, with almost 50% of students eligible for Pupil Premium. We firmly believe that social disadvantage is not a barrier to achievement. Our inclusive ethos, ambitious culture and strong pastoral support ensure that every student is supported to thrive. As a school rooted in one of the most diverse communities in London, we celebrate the richness of our student and staff population and actively promote equality, inclusion and belonging. Our mission is to empower every learner to achieve academic excellence, develop strong character and leave Swanlea equipped with the knowledge, skills and confidence to succeed in higher education, employment and life beyond school.

We are now seeking to appoint passionate and committed Teachers of English to join our highly successful English Faculty. The department is well-resourced, collaborative and forward-thinking, with a strong track record of excellent student outcomes at both Key Stage 4 and Key Stage 5. Staff work closely together to share best practice, develop innovative approaches to teaching and learning and continuously refine the curriculum to meet the needs of all learners. The successful candidates will join a supportive team with high expectations, strong leadership and a shared commitment to raising standards, improving literacy and ensuring that every student develops a love of reading, writing and critical thinking.

The successful candidate will:

- Hold Qualified Teacher Status (QTS) and a good honours degree
- Demonstrate strong subject knowledge and effective classroom practice
- Have high expectations of student achievement and behaviour
- Be committed to inclusive education and raising standards for all learners
- Work collaboratively within a supportive and ambitious team
- Demonstrate professionalism, integrity and strong communication skills

In return, we offer:

- A supportive and experienced leadership team
- A competitive Inner London salary and Local Government Pension Scheme
- High-quality CPD and leadership development opportunities, with a strong track record of internal promotion into middle and senior leadership roles
- A strong culture of staff wellbeing and work-life balance, including weekly fitness sessions and access to Step Forward wellbeing support services
- Excellent facilities and high-quality teaching and learning resources

- Access to a wide range of staff benefits including season ticket loans, cycle to work scheme, wellbeing support services and staff dining facilities, including subsidised staff breakfast and lunch with hot and cold food options available
- A welcoming, diverse and vibrant school community
